JAPS RETREATED.

Battalion of the Mikado's Troops Attacked a Regiment of Russian Cossacks.

FIRING LASTED UNTIL NIGHTFALL.

The Russians Were Reinforced and the Japanese Were Repulsed at All Points and Dispersed.

A Russian Patrol Discovered Towanghau Pass Occupied By 200 Chinese Bandits Under the Command of Japanese Officers.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 5.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Gen. Sakaroff, dated October 30:

"At dawn of October 1 a squadron of Japanese cavalry twice attempted to break through the line of advance posts of Cossacks of the guard in the district between Khuankhuandia and Pengtiapu. Both attempts were unsuccessful. Two squadrons of our cavalry reinforced the advance posts and the Japanese dispersed.

"Towards noon the same day one battalion of the Japanese advance guard with two or three squadrons of cavalry of the Japanese advance guard with two or three squadrons of cavalry, renewed the offensive movement against a regiment of Cossacks. The firing lasted until nightfall. Gen. Mis-chenko sent reinforcements to the aid of the Cossacks and towards evening the enemy was repulsed at all points, the whole line retreating towards Silonkhetzy, pursued by our cavalry.

"Capt. Tolstoukine, commander of a squadron, ambushed one of the enemy's patrols at Konschutz. One Japanese officer was killed.

"In the positions abandoned by the Japanese our Cossacks found a number of cartridges and medical stores, and also a few dead horses. We had two officers and two Cossacks wounded. The same day a Japanese force of one battalion and a half and a squadron of cavalry attacked in three divisions our outposts between the Hun river and the railway. Towards evening this movement was checked with the help of another company, which reinforced the outpost. One Cossack was killed and one wounded.

"One Russian patrol dispersed two Japanese patrols in the vicinity of Tchjanton, on the right bank of the Hun river, taking three Japanese prisoners.

"Another Russian patrol, sent in an easterly direction, discovered Towanghau Pass occupied by 200 Chinese bandits, commanded by Japanese officers.
During the reconnaissance one Cos-sack was killed."

Tokio, Oct. 5.—The following official report has been issued:

"The Manchurian headquarters reports by telegraph that a body of scouts sent by our advance detachment on October 2, consisting of a company of infantry and a troop of cavalry, attacked and routed a detachment of the enemy's cavalry, 60 strong, occupying Paohsingtung, 13 miles north of Liao Yang, and nine miles west of the Mukden road. While further reconnoitering in the vicinity a force of Russian cavalry, 230 strong attacked the Japanese scouts. After fighting for some time the Japanese returned. The enemy's loss was about 30. We sustained no casualties.

"The state of affairs at the front of our army remains unchanged."

BARTHOLOI DEAD.

The Famous Sculptor of "Liberty Enlightening the World" Passes Away.

Paris, Oct. 5.—Frederick Auguste Bartholdi, the sculptor, died at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.

His American works, besides the statue of Liberty, include the figures of Washington and Lafayette decorating the Place des Etats Unis here, the Bartholdi fountain, in the botanical garden at Washington and the bronze group of the Leisures of Peace, in New York.

The Temps, of which Bartholdi was one of the directors, says the death of Bartholdi and Gerome removes the greatest of modern sculptors and relates how Bartholdi's statue of Liberty was the Apotheosis of France's role since the revolution, which led the French government to offer the statue to the sister republic as a pledge of fraternal devotion to Liberty.

Battleship Ohio in Commission.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The battleship Ohio was placed in commission at San Francisco Tuesday with Capt. L. C.
Logan in command. The Ohio will make a short cruise along the Pacific coast to shake down her machinery and ultimately will be attached to the Atlantic fleet.

RECORDS BROKEN.

Grace Bond Won the Futurity Race at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 5.—Grace Bond broke at least two world's records to win the classic Kentucky Futurity, worth $14,000, and is disputing the title for a third world's record. She gave two of the heats of the race to Alta Axworthy, the prime favorite, but made her own three heats in 2:09 3/4, or better, thus establishing a world's record for three-year-old trotters. Two of the heats she ran in 2:09 3/4, establishing a world's three-year-old record for two heats. When she made the first heat in 2:09 3/4, Starter Walker announced that she had broken a world's record. Fantasy, at Nashville in 1893, trotted a mile as a three-year-old in 2:08 3/4 in the second heat of a race, but under unusual conditions.
In order to allow her to make a record, distance had been waived and a pacemaker picked her up at the half mile, and she went under the wire while the bunch was turning the stretch. Grace Bond's fractional time in her three fast heats was: First heat, 32 1/2, 1:04, 1:35 3/4; 2:09 3/4. Second heat, 32 1/2, 1:04 1/4, 1:36 1/4, 2:09 1/4.
Fifth heat, 32 1/2, 1:05 1/4, 1:37 1/2, 2:09 1/4.

cide question was voted down.

TO DO BUSINESS IN THE STATE.

The Authority of the Security Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 5.—State Insurance Commissioner Henry R. Brewitt entered an order upon the records of that department revoking all authority of the Security Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Binghamton, N. Y., and its agents to do business in the state of Kentucky. The action is taken, because of the removal by that company of a case against it from the state to the United States court, in violation of the Kentucky statute. The case is that of Crane and others against the company, from the county of Owen.
The authority of the commissioner will, it is expected, be taken into the courts.

No Compromise For Crigler & Crigler.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 5.—There will be no compromise in the case of the packages of whisky and filling them with cheaper grade of goods without notifying the revenue collector, as is required by law.

ilton Farm Co., composed of George G.

PEACE CONGRESS.

The First Deliberate Session of the Thirteenth Convention Opened in Boston Tuesday.

DELEGATES FROM ALL COUNTRIES

Almost a Demand For the Institution of Peace Between the Nations of the World Made.

Suggestion Was Advanced That Some Collective Movement Might Be Made to Induce Russia and Japan to Cease Hostilities.

Boston, Oct. 5.—A general supplication, coupled with a demand, almost for the institution of peace between nations of the world, was the keynote Tuesday of the first deliberate session of the 13th International Peace Congress. Delegates from the great countries of the globe, all prominent in their home lands, engaged in the proceedings, giving to the occasion all the dignity and importance of a momentous international assembly.

A feature of the opening session was the receipt of an elaborate report from the International Peace Bureau for 1904, in which was reviewed what had been attained in the direction of peace by the peace workers of the world during the year passed, and also was set forth the present war conditions of the world necessitating correctionary measures by those desiring the establishment of universal concord.
The suggestion was made that some collective movement might be made to induce the Russo-Japanese belligerents to return to peace. Edwin D.
Mead, the chairman of the organization committee of the congress, delivered the opening address of the meeting, speaking an earnest word in favor of the reduction of great navies, and a general disarmament among nations.

Speeches were made by one delegate from each of the countries represented at the congress, including Alderman Thomas Snape, of Liverpool, for Great Britain.

Mr. Snape referred particularly to Secretary of State Hay's appearance at Monday's peace meeting as the representative of the United States, and took occasion to remark upon what an astounding thing it would be considered in England did the British minister of foreign affairs officially represent Great Britain at a similar meeting.

A general condemnation of President Roosevelt's call for another Hague conference marked the other addresses.

THE EPISCOPALIANS.

The Triennial General Convention Assembles in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 5.—What is considered by the leading bishops and lay delegates as the most important convocation of Episcopalians ever held in this country was formally opened in this city Wednesday when the triennial convention assembled in Emanuel church. Before the opening session a service was held in Trinity church at which Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and prelates from four continents were present. Nearly 100 bishops were in the solemn procession which preceded the service. The preacher

Archbishop of Canterbury.

was Rt. Rev. William Crowell Doane, D.D., LL.D., bishop of Albany, N. Y.
The Archbishop of Canterbury, the first occupant of the chair of St. Augustine, to attend a convention of the Episcopal church in this country, arrived from New York on a special train, which reached the city from New York Tuesday afternoon. Dr.
Davidson was accompanied by J. Pierpont Morgan, who is a deputy from New York.

Tuesday night Amory Lawrence, of this city, tendered a banquet to the English primates at the Tuilleries.

A number of matters of the first importance are to be acted upon, including the question of changing the name of the church and that of altering the divorce canon to prevent the re-marriage of any person whose partner is still living.

PAYNE'S SUCCESSOR.

It Is Probable That Mr. Cortelyou Will Assume the Duties.

Washington, Oct. 5.—In succession to Mr. Payne, George Bruce Cortelyou, former secretary of the department of Commerce and labor, and now chairman of the republican national committee, will become postmaster general about December 1. Mr. Cortel-you's appointment as head of the post office department was determined on several months ago by President Roosevelt when Mr. Payne indicated to the president his desire to retire from the department on account of the precarious state of his health. Mr.

HON. GEORGE B. CORTELYOU.

Payne would have resigned the portfolio long ago had it not been for the pending investigation of the affairs of the department. In the interim the responsibilities of directing the affairs of the post office department will evolve on Mr. Wynne.

THE LAST SAD RITES.

Remains of Senator George F. Hoar Committed to the Tomb.

Concord, Mass., Oct. 5.—The last services over the body of United States Senator George Frisbie Hoar were held Tuesday in this town, the place of his birth, and several hundred of the senator's former townsmen followed the body to the place of its burial in Sleepy Hollow cemetery. In the First Parish church a solemn service of Scripture reading, song and prayer, was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Loren B. McDonald. The pastor read James Russell Lowell's poem on Channing. Two of Senator Hoar's favorite hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Abide With Me," were sung by a quartette. At the grave brief services of burial were held and the body was committed to the tomb.

IN A STREET DUEL.

A Milwaukee Man, a Bystander, Accidentally Shot.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 5.—During a street duel here Tuesday between J. M. Chittim, known as the Texas Cattle King, and W. W. Jones, a cattleman and banker at Beeville, H. S.
Elwell, a traveling man of Milwaukee Wis., chanced within range and was accidentally killed. The bullet, it is said, was fired from Chittim's gun.
Chittim was placed in jail charged with murder. Elwell worked for the H. C. Miller Co., stationers of Milwan-kee. From letters in his possession it appears he has a brother in the boygan. Neither of the participants was injured.

THE BRIDGE WENT DOWN.

Seven Men Are Missing Out of a Party of Eight Men.

Oklahoma City, O. T., Oct. 5.—Seven men are missing of a party of eight men who went down with the wagon bridge between Lexington and Purcell Monday night, after battling with the swift rush of waters for many hours in their vain attempt to prevent the bridge from going out, the only connection between the two towns. Judge Hocker, who lives at Byers, near Lexington, is the man heard from, but he can tell nothing of the other men.

THE CASE DISMISSED.

Effort of Modern Woodmen to Secure $100,000 From McCutcheon Estate.

Sloux City, Ia., Oct. 5.—The case of the Modern Woodmen of America to collect $100,000 from the estate of the late E. H. McCutcheon, a banker at Holstein, Ia., was dismissed Tuesday.
Upon McCutcheon's death it was found that his bank was insolvent. He was a leading Woodman and had $100,000 of the order's funds in his bank. The Woodmen sued the bond-men who replied that their names had been secured by fraud.

Probably Lynched.

Perry, Fla., Oct. 5.—A Negro named Rivers was taken from Sheriff Smith and two deputies by a mob of 100 or more men early Tuesday.

H. C. PAYNE IS DEAD

The Postmaster General of the United States Expired at 6:10 Tuesday Evening.

THE END CAME PEACEFULLY.

The Cause of Death Was Disease of the Mitral Valve and Dilatation of the Heart.

Funeral Services Will Be Held in Washington Friday, After Which the Remains Will Be Taken to Milwaukee For Burial.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C.
Payne, postmaster general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, a stalwart of his party, with the history of which both in his home state and nationally he has been identified for many years, died at his apartments at the Arlington hotel at 6:10 o'clock Tuesday night, aged 60 years. The death and its cause was announced in the following official bulletin issued by the attending physicians:

"The postmaster general died at 6:10 p. m. He died peacefully without a struggle. Cause of death was disease of mitral valve and dilatation of the heart. (Signed) P. M. Rixey, G. Lloyd Magruder, C. T. Grayson."

Mr. Payne had been in poor health for at least two years, but his last illness covered only seven days, an attack of heart trouble last week precipitating the end at a time when, after a rest, he seemed to have recovered a small measure of his vitality, impaired by years of arduous labor.
Death came after nearly six hours of unconsciousness.

The last official caller to inquire as to Mr. Payne's condition was President Roosevelt, and he had been gone only about ten minutes when the stricken member of his cabinet expired. Secretary Hay had called at the Payne apartments a few minutes before the president made his visit.
Neither entered the sick room. As Mr.
Roosevelt was leaving about 6 o'clock he spoke feelingly of Mr. Payne to the newspaper men gathered in front of the hotel as "The sweetest, most lovable and most trustful man I ever knew." Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by her brother, Capt. Cowles, also was a caller at the family apartments of the Paynes during the late afternoon.

Around Mr. Payne's bedside at the time of his death was his devoted wife, Rev. Dr. Dunlap, pastor of St.
John's Episcopal church; Maj. and Mrs. W. S. Cameron, of Jamestown, N.
Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Cameron, of Milwaukee; Charles L. Jones and Miss Louise Jones, relatives; Private Secretary Whitney, Miss Marie Barbieri, an old companion of Mrs. Payne's; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mason, of Washington, old time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Payne, and the faithful colored messenger at the department of the postmaster general.

When the postmaster general had breathed his last Dr. Magruder led Mrs. Payne out of the room. It was stated that she had stood up bravely under the heavy strain.

The last day had been one during which practically all hope had been abandoned for some hours. The approach of dissolution began during the noon hour when the sick man lost consciousness and no longer recognized those whom he had attempted to cheer during his illness by saying to them that he was all right. When Mrs. Payne saw that the end was near she summoned Rev. Dr. Dunlap, of St.
John's Episcopal church, and at her request he read at the bedside of the dying man Psalm 130, "Out of the deep," and then repeated the prayers the Episcopal church provides shall be read at the bed of those about to pass away.

Funeral services will be held at St.
John's Episcopal church, this city, next Friday morning, and at 3:15 that afternoon the body will be taken to the Pennsylvania railroad station and placed aboard the private car of President A. J. Enrling, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, who rendered the use of the car and announced that it would be here by Wednesday morning. The remains should arrive at Milwaukee Saturday evening and services will be held next Sunday at the All Saints Episcopal church there.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1904.

Weather Forecast.

Fair and cooler to-night, Thursday fair and cooler.

The secret of political victory is the thoroughness with which the precincts are organized. Get the vote out in your immediate neighborhood and the balance of the State will take care of itself.

The new registration law will make the repeating of negro votes which has been depended on in the past by the Republicans, practically impossible. Too many safe-guards cannot be thrown about the registered vote, particularly in the cities where it is so easy to practice fraud. The desperate fight made by the Republicans to have this law declared unconstitutional is proof that they are not willing to have the votes either fairly cast or honestly counted.

TEDDY'S CUNNING EFFORT.

The New York American says of Mr. Roosevelt's letter of acceptance:

"But Mr. Roosevelt makes a cunning effort at frankness.

"All that was done during the last seven years by him and the Republican majority was done well. No mistakes were made, and Mr. Roosevelt insists that the country was never more prosperous and happy than it is now.

"Mr. Roosevelt defends his action in the Panama matter, asks what the Democrats would have done, and makes a final stand on the doctrine of the end justifying the means by urging that out of all the scandal, if there be any, we get the canal.

"He dares the Democrats to define their position on the gold question, says the Republicans stood for gold in 1900 and 1896, and closes the question by stating that future developments may change the present Republican view.

"Forgetting when he wrote in his life of Benton that the tariff almost ruined a certain section of this country, Mr. Roosevelt holds that protection is good for all people.

KEHOE IN BATH.

Large Crowd of Democrats and Republicans Hear Him at Owingsville Last Monday.

A special from Owingsville says Congressman Kehoe spoke at the court house there for about an hour Monday to a large and attentive audience. His speech was received with enthusiasm and much applause. Many Republicans were in the audience.

There is no doubt in Bath that Mr. Kehoe will receive every Democratic vote in the county, and likely will receive some Republican votes since the withdrawal of Pugh, who was considered by the Republicans to be the only man in the district who could give Kehoe a run for his money.

Mr. Kehoe left to pursue his canvass, which he said would be active regardless of whom the opposition nominated.

The Republicans are highly indignant at Pugh's leaving them, and even if they do nominate another candidate, Pugh's withdrawal will cost them many votes.

J. B. Barnett of Greenup has announced that he will under no circumstances be a candidate.

Summary of Crop Bulletin.

The crop bulletin for the week ending October 3, says: "The sowing of wheat has progressed fairly well, but in some parts the ground was too wet to work. Early sown fields are coming up nicely. If favorable weather prevails, a large acreage will be sown.

"Tobacco is nearly all cut and housed. It is generally reported to be curing nicely, but there is some complaint of house-burning. The acreage was much below the average, but the yield and quality as a whole is good.

"Corn cutting has advanced very well, but there is considerable not quite ready for the knife. It is very irregular, some fields showing the finest crops for years, while others are very light. It is not turning out quite as good as was expected, and as a whole will be somewhat below the average."

"The Nonpareil of Beauty!"

Cheviots, hard twisted, free from oil, the firm, even texture diversified with glistening spiral or straight nubs of self-colored Mohair, which gives life to the fabric. And this splendid color range—brown, black, navy, tan, castor, royal. Then remember most cheviots are forty-two inches wide, while these are fully forty-eight inches. And when you think of the price $1 a yard you'll not imagine us over sanguine for predicting the rapid sale of these handsome fabrics.

Underpriced Underwear.

The "How" and the "Why" don't concern you; but quality and price do. There is nothing we can say that will be as convincing as your careful examination of this Underwear. It is closely woven, finely ribbed, drawers are in knee or ankle length, vests are neatly finished at the neck. Women who are accustomed to pay 50c will appreciate the unusual opportunity of buying such underwear for 39c a garment.

COMPANY NOT LIABLE.

Court of Appeals Holds That McCabe Was a Trespasser When He Was Killed Near the C. and O. Depot.

In the case of the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company versus McCabe, taken up from Campbell County, Judge Barker of the Court of Appeals in reversing, delivered the following opinion:

When appellee and two companions stole a ride on appellant's train, disembarking at Maysville in appellant's yard, sat down on the track and fell asleep, when a freight train in passing cut off his leg and killed his companions, he was a trespasser, and the company owed him no duty except reasonable diligence to prevent injury to him after his peril was discovered. There being no evidence to the effect that the boys were discovered by those in charge of the train, but, on the contrary, it appearing that their presence was not discovered, a peremptory instruction should have been given the appellant.

The DePew-Burdette people gave another good show last night. If anything, the performance gave even better satisfaction than that of Monday evening. The stage settings were very pretty and the illustrated songs were alone worth the price of admission. As stated yesterday, this is no ordinary popular-priced company, and they are deserving of good business throughout the week.
